openrance of Sully Manipulation Disturbs the New York

New York, Sept. 28.—The cotton market developed a sharp reactionary tendency o-day, under what appeared to be a com nation of bearish influences, accelerating profit-taking among the trading ele-ment and heavier Southern selling. At the same time it caused a falling off in the spot demand as well as the speculative and from outsiders and the various trade interests.

The thing most disliked by recent bulis, The thing most disliked by recent bulls, commission houses and spot dealers was the appearance of the Sully manipulation in the market. It appears that this operator has formed a pool of the usual blind character, and it is not relished by many in the trade here, who are his creditors, and consequently his recent circulars and acknowledged activity in the market has caused considerable adverse comment as well as criticism among them, and many who were builts before and were inclined to assist rather aggressively in bulling the market, are disinclined to do so now under this leadership. In fact, they are more disposed to take the other side. This was one of the features of the selling movement in the market to-day, and it had as much to do with causing the weakness and slump in prices as did the adverse sentimental effect of the weaker markets abroad, heavier receipts and fine weakness in the cotton beit, or the renewed aggressive tactics of Mr. Price's bear clique. The trading was moderately active, but the tone was distinctly weaker and there was decidedly less snap and firmness to the spot markets of the South.

The market railled in the late trading on efforts of the leader of the bear clique to cover shorts and the bull elique distributing buying orders to manipulate the price. Speculation has resolved itself into ssion houses and spot dealers was

NEWSPAPER EDITORIALS PRAISE PARKER'S LETTER

Document Is Treated as One Seldom Equaled by Any Aspirant for the Presidency-Many Compare It to His Famous Gold Telegram-Fairness to Republicans Is Emphasized by Many Writers-Prediction Made That Many Republican Voters Will Be Made Democratic.

ITS SINCERITY INJECTS NEW VIGOR INTO CAMPAIGN.

Judge Parker's letter of acceptance has been treated by the metropolitan press of the country as a document having few equals from presidential candidates, Its sober, judicial tone, its nicely worded assertions and its careful distinctions have een praised freely.

That it will be the cause of many voters swinging from the Republican to the Democratic party, and so casting their ballots in November, is asserted in almost every section of the country. Editorials touching upon the subject from a few of the leading newspapers of the country follow:

LETTER EQUALS TELEGRAM. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

New York, Sept. 26.-The New York Herald says: though calm and dignified, will stir the country even more profoundly than did his famous telegram, announcing his firm and irrevocable adherence to the gold standirrevocable adherence to the gold standard. Its calmness is the calmness of power

-like that of the oceanic tide.

"As a great but conservative tribune of the people' which the author of this states manifice letter now shows himself to be,
his strong protests against the oppression
of monopoly, and the subversion of consituational government and law, by audacious and arrogant extremists of imperfalism, will have immensely greater weight with all independent voters, because the statements evidently emanate from a man who soberly weighs his words in the nice halances of judicial accuracy and are supported by irrefutable facts."

or the moment made a decline almost inevitable, the undertone was cheerful enough.

"At each recession of a point or two large blocks were absorbed and it became pretty plain that the average trader mereity awaits a further decline to tuy in a ilberal way.

"The movement expands steadily and is now large, even by comparison with the year before last. Rulls explain the magnitude of the quantities brought to light by saying that the demand for September shipment has been urged and that buyers
at interior points have paid big prices in order to fulfilf their engagements. The bears, on the other hand, maintain that the large deliveries simply made that the crop is larger than the estimates now current and that the farmer is a willing seller
at the level which overzealous speculators have created.

"These are of course mere environs and These are, of course, mere opinions and one of them will be as good as the other for some weeks to come. The simple fact is that most operators are entirely unwilling to boost the bulk of the crop and would remain out of the market altogether rather than thrust their arms into a grabbage which, for all they know, may contain a steel trap. This conservatism of speculation is a fortunate thing, for the movement of the crop from gin to spindle is thus left unimpeded and there is no danger of a collapse which, in the forces of the time are doing a work which man's interference can do nothing but mar." REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Boston, Mass., Sept. 36.-The Boston Herald says to-day of Judge Parker's let-

"It is an able, candid, vigorous, comprehensive, definite consideration of the prehensive, definite consideration of the peremptory issues of the present canvass. It gives assurance that its author has the insight and the capacity of statesmanship. He has now spoken with freedom and power, confirming the faith of those who had faith, and the hope of those who had no satisfying grounds for faith. "It is the letter of a sineere high-minded, conscientious citizen, anxious that the people, who are to render judgement, shall rightly understand his political faith and purposes."

LETTER IS OUTSPOKEN. LETTER IS OUTSPOKEN.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Louisville, Ky., Sept. 3.—The Courier Journal says to-day on Judge Parker's etter of acceptance: "Vigor and clearness are the chief characteristics of Judge Parker's letter of ecceptance. It is not nearly so long as that of Mr. Roosevelt's, but it omits noth-ing that ought to be mentioned. Its tone is judicial, while that of Mr. Roosevelt was not. It is perfectly courteous, and at the same time perfectly outspoken. It does not undertake to bully those of a dif-ferent way of thinking, nor to hold them up as idious or public enemies, but it leaves no one in doubt as to Judge Park-er's views of public policy."

FAIR TO OPPOSITION. REPUBLIC SPECIAL Baltimore, Md., Sept. 26.-"Judge Parker's letter of acceptance is a sober, er's letter of acceptance is a sobet, straightforward, sensible statement of the principles and policies advocated by the Democratic party," says the Sun.

The Democratic party," says the Sun.

The Democratic standard-bearer not only replies to the taunts of his Republican opponents, but he takes the offensive himself, and arraigns the Republican party in decorous language, and in a judicial spirit. Judge Parker is more aggressive in this letter than he was in his speech of acceptance. But it is the aggressiveness of conservatism. There is no vehement denunciation, no 'tunning amuck,' no impugning the motives of those in authority, nor belitting the intelligence of millions of voters who do not share his political views."

INJECTS NEW VIGOR INTO CANVASS. INJECTS NEW VIGOR INTO CANVASS REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Sept. 26.-The Times says: "Judge Parker's statesmanlike, virile and convincing letter of acceptance lifts the Democratic campaign once more to the level of the gold-standard telegram, or very near it. The incident of the telegram, and startling, was altogether unique. It could not be repeated and nothing like it could happen again in the canvass. If, in the quiet days that followed, Democrats have feit that the battle larged, and that their lines were being beaten back here and there by the impetuous onrush of the confident foe their apprehension and the reaction that caused it were but natural.

"The letter of the candidate ends that phase of the campaign. It stirs, it moves, it inspires, it gives the needed forward impuls. It is the letter of a strong man, a man confident of the rightness of his views, and sure of his strength at every point." "Judge Parker's statesmanlike, virile and

ANSWERS ROOSEVELT'S QUESTIONS. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.
Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 35-The Buffalo

Courier says:

"His views are Democratic in the broad sense. Fair-minded Republicans who are Americans before anything cannot help saying amen to many of his patriotic sentiments. Many thousands of Republicans will agree thoroughly with his opinions on revision of the tariff, and that reciprocity policy to which the Republican party has been pledged, although it has broken its faith.

"President Rossevelt, in his letter, after attempting to excuse his usurpation of the law-making authority in the matter of his pension order, challenged the Democracy with the interrogation. What are you going to do about it?" Judge Parker answers this arrogant question in a manner that should warm the heart of every true old soldier who wants the Union preserved in its full integrity." courier says:
